

Texas Women Killed by their Intimate Partner in 2008

The Texas Council on Family Violence (TCFV) researches, to the best of its ability, the stories of Texas women who were killed by their intimate partner. According to data from the Texas Department of Public Safety, 136 women were killed by an intimate partner. This represents 39 percent of all women murdered in Texas in 2008. This list names these victims and gives brief accounts of their deaths. Details are gathered from Texas law enforcement agencies, media reports and the Texas Department of Public Safety. There are undoubtedly other victims of domestic violence who remain uncounted. Authorities will refer to the offender as an "acquaintance" or "unknown" because the relationship was not determined at the time of death. This list reflects the most accurate information available to TCFV researchers at the time of compilation.
