

BIPP EDUCATIONAL SERIES, PART TWO

JULY 27-28, 2010

Austin Marriott South

4415 South IH-35

Austin, Texas 78744

The BIPP Educational Series, Part Two is an intermediate training for professionals who have provided BIPP services for three of more years. It builds on fundamental information and best practices for group facilitation.

The BIPP Educational Series, Part Two is facilitated by a team of TCFV staff members working to improve BIPP services statewide and a contract faculty of tenured professionals who work with family violence offenders.

The Texas Council on Family Violence will provide up to 20 hours of training through a mixture of mediums including self-directed online presentations and classroom training.

Training hours are approved by TDCJ-CJAD to meet the requirements towards BIPP Accreditation training requirements.

TOPICS INCLUDE

Adult Learning Techniques

Intersections: BIPP and Substance Abuse

Philosophy of Motivating Positive Change in Batters

Incorporating Prevention in your BIPP

Group Facilitation: Overcoming Resistance

Violence as Oppression

Group Facilitation: Collusion for Tenured Professionals

Building Collaboration with Systems

Registration Deadline: Thursday, July 15, 2010

The BIPP Educational Series is training curriculum that is replacing TCFV's BIPP: Dedication. After feedback from various professionals in the BIPP field, CJAD-funded program coordinators and facilitators, attendees from Dedication and the BIPP Annual Conference, TCFV chose to re-organize and expand BIPP training workshops to meet all levels of continuing education for BIPP professionals.

The BIPP Educational Series, Part Two is an intermediate training for professionals who have provided BIPP services for three or more years. It builds on fundamental information and best practices for group facilitation.

Refreshments will be provided. Lunch is on your own.
